

State:	California
Question:	Are charter schools prohibited from using selective admissions?
Answer:	SOMEWHAT
Additional Information:	Charter schools must be open enrollment, however may add additional requirements (e.g. auditions) tied to educational mission. Additional requirements cannot be used to evaluate students, but rather only as an indication of fit and interest.
Citation:	Cal. Ed. Code 47605(d)(2)(A)
Citation Link:	https://leginfo.legislature.ca.gov/faces/codes_displaySection.xhtml?lawCode=EDC&sectionNum=47605.